Vanessa Goymour Biography

Executive Director Vanessa Goymour joined the TSM team in November 2018 and brings proven experience working with arts organizations across Canada in festival production, arts management, and education.

Prior to joining TSM, Vanessa was the Director of Community Engagement and Education with Ottawa Chamberfest. During her time at Chamberfest, Vanessa successfully launched the Community Engagement and Education Pillar, a series of ten programmes designed to enhance outreach, deepen audience experience, and enrich community life. Previously, Vanessa was General Manager and Artistic Advisor of Jeunesses Musicales Ontario (JMO). At JMO, Vanessa managed all aspects of the organization's activities, including strategic planning, artist development, programming, and concert production. Vanessa has also held positions as Regional Manager at the Royal Conservatory (Alberta), and Manager of Outreach at the Calgary Philharmonic Orchestra. A talented violist, Vanessa is a graduate of McGill University, and an alumna of the National Youth Orchestra of Canada.
